

Brief Profile Sascha Klaus Chair of the Board of Berlin Hyp

Sascha Klaus has been Chair of the Board of Management of Berlin Hyp AG. He joined Berlin Hyp as a member of the Board of Management on 1 September 2016.

At Berlin Hyp, he is responsible for the divisions, Finance, Human Resources, Corporate Strategy, Communication and Marketing, B-one, Information Technology, Governance and Audit divisions.

Klaus most recently worked at Hypothekbank Frankfurt (formerly Eurohypo). In his position as a member of the Board of Management there, he was responsible for the commercial real estate financing business from 2012 onwards and in addition for Public Finance and Treasury since 2014. At the same time, he was a member of the Divisional Board for non-core assets at Commerzbank.

The Luxembourg-born Franco-German Sascha Klaus joined the Deutsche Bank Group in 1990, where he completed his training and worked parallel to obtaining a degree in business administration at the Frankfurt School of Finance & Management.

In 2000, he moved to Dresdner Kleinwort, New York, where he held the position of Head of Financial Institutions – Group Risk Management from 2003 onwards. In mid-2008, Sascha Klaus returned to Europe, where, after various national and international management positions in risk management at Dresdner Bank-/Commerzbank Group, he was appointed to the Board of Management of the Eastern European holding company.
